Construction has started, but you still have time to select 100% of your interior finishes, including cabinets, tile, countertops, hardwoods, and more. This enchanting stucco and stone version of our Balboa is located in Fort Mill at Arden Mill, just minutes from top-rated schools, shopping and dining at Kingsley, and convenient to I-77. While construction has started on this home by Charlotte's locally owned, and nationally recognized luxury homebuilder, there's still time to select 100% of the interior finishes, including paint colors, cabinets, counters, tile, flooring, interior trim, doors, appliances, plumbing fixtures, light fixtures, door hardware, and more! This is a "Your Way" inventory home, which means the inside has been left completely untouched so that you can personalize it how you want. You'll get to choose selections from hundreds of options in our Design Studio and work one-on-one with a Design Consultant -- creating your home, your way. Your design style, but ready in half the time. The price includes design dollars to complete your home with luxury finishes and options. Start now and move in summer 2021!
